

October 2017

Dear Member:

Thank you for your interest in serving on the Board of Directors of the Black Hills Federal Credit Union.

Board members spend a considerable amount of personal time fulfilling their Board responsibilities, preparing for meetings, and attending in-state and out-of-state meetings. Current Board members spend an average of 10 to 25 hours or more per month meeting their responsibilities. It is important that you understand this is strictly a volunteer position and there is no monetary compensation for services rendered.

Regular monthly meetings are normally held on the fourth Wednesday of each month and commence sharply at 4:45 p.m. with dinner at approximately 6:30 p.m. Board members are expected to be on time and actively engage in meetings.

We have enclosed the Application for Board of Directors; Job Description that lists many of the duties and responsibilities that come with the Board position; Volunteer Participation Policy; Code of Ethics and Conduct Statement Policy; Fraud Policy for Volunteers; Federal Bank Bribery Law; Conflict of Interest Policy; Document Retention Policy; and Terms of Agreement for Board of Directors. We encourage you to thoroughly read all items to gain a better understanding of the position.

Also, please note the Volunteer Participation Policy lists eligibility criteria. Policy 1170-2 H. states that to serve as a BHFCU director, you must be a primary member (first name listed on your BHFCU account) or a joint owner actively using a primary member's BHFCU account for at least two years. In order for a joint owner to be considered for nomination, you must become a primary member prior to submitting your nomination application.

If you are nominated and elected to the Board, I also want to let you know that any loan request from a director resulting in aggregate loans in excess of $20,000 will require a special meeting of the Board of Directors for approval, which can normally take place within one or two days of the request. For requests that result in an aggregate of $20,000 or less, the application will need approval of the Board Loan Officer at Large.

If, after reviewing the enclosed information, you are interested in being a candidate, please complete and sign the enclosed Application for Board of Directors and the Terms of Agreement for Board of Directors, as well as the signature pages for all of the policies. The application packet must be received by 5:00 p.m. on November 17, 2017. Please submit your application packet by one of the following methods:

- Mail to Dennis Laughlin at the address listed below
- Hand-deliver directly to any of the Nominating Committee members
 - Dennis Laughlin
 - Karen Satrang
 - Allen Zandstra
- Drop off at any BHFCU Member Service Center
- E-mail to nancym@bhfcu.net

The Nominating Committee will contact you for an interview if you are chosen as one of the finalists for further consideration.

Thank you for your interest in serving as a volunteer in your Credit Union.

Sincerely,

Dennis Laughlin
Nominating Committee Chair

Job Description for Board of Directors

PRIMARY FUNCTION

To set policy, plan the Credit Union's course, make sure the Credit Union maintains its sound financial condition, keep communication open to educate members on services, review the President's progress in achieving goals and objectives, and report to the members at the annual meeting.

GENERAL DUTIES

- The Board of Directors is responsible for the general direction and control of the Credit Union. The Board may delegate operational functions to management, but not the responsibility for the Credit Union's direction.
- A director must carry out his or her duties in good faith, in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the membership, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.
- A director must administer the affairs of the Credit Union fairly and impartially and without discrimination in favor of or against any particular member.
- A director must have at least a working familiarity with basic finance and accounting practices, including the ability to read and understand the credit union's balance sheet and income statement and the ability to ask, as appropriate, substantive questions of management and auditors.
- A director must direct the operations of Black Hills Federal Credit Union in conformity with the Federal Credit Union Act, NCUA's Rules and Regulations, other applicable laws, and sound business practices.
- A director may rely on information prepared or presented by employees or consultants the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent and who merit confidence in the particular functions performed.

SPECIFIC DUTIES

- Work with the President and the Board to develop objectives and goals for the Credit Union.
- Make sure the Credit Union adheres to pertinent laws, regulations, and sound business practices.
- Make sure the Credit Union maintains sound financial conditions and that the Credit Union's assets are protected against unauthorized or illegal acts. Review all insurance coverages at least annually. Designate depositories, authorize borrowing and investing, and provide for bonding and other security factors, including internal control procedures. Approve interest rates and dividends.
- Approve the Credit Union budget.
- Establish and approve policies to guide management decisions.
- Approve appropriate new products and services.
- Hire the President, define the scope of the President's job, and review progress in attaining goals and objectives.
- Maintain confidentiality of the business of the Credit Union and its members.
- Maintain, review, and update Credit Union policies, bylaws, security program, and succession plan as needed.
- Monitor and oversee all activities of the Supervisory Committee.
- Attend and actively participate in all regular and special Board meetings and planning sessions.
- Serve on committees as requested by the Board.
- Recruit new directors to make sure that the Credit Union has a well-qualified and effective Board in the future.

Code of Ethics and Conduct Statement Policy

This Credit Union will conduct its relationships and operations in accordance with this purpose and uphold its fundamental commitment to serving its members. This Credit Union is committed to the highest standards of responsibility and conduct and subscribes to the following guidelines:

RESPONSIBILITIES

To Members

- To provide the highest level of personal financial services in a courteous and professional manner and to treat all individuals fairly without regard to race, creed, national origin, sex, religion or social or economic level.
- To encourage thrift and savings to help members achieve a greater measure of financial security.
- To provide loan services at fair and reasonable rates, and to encourage the wise use of credit.
- To protect the assets and member funds placed in our care and custody, and practice and maintain high standards of sound management, including efficiency, integrity, and economy of operations.
- To adhere to democratic and cooperative principles within the Credit Union and encourage and facilitate active member participation in its democratic process.
- To provide members with timely, accurate, complete, relevant, and understandable information regarding the financial conditions, operations, and services of the Credit Union and of their individual accounts or transactions.
- To preserve and protect the privacy and confidentiality of all member financial records and transactions. The collection of nonpublic personal information and the disclosure of that information will be in compliance with NCUA Rules and Regulations Part 716.
- To abide by the letter, spirit, and intent of state and federal consumer protection laws and regulations and to provide members with complete and accurate information concerning their rights.
- To increase knowledge and ability of members to manage and control their financial well being through counseling and by providing educational information, materials, and programs.

To Credit Union Movement

- To promote and protect always the best interests and reputation of the Credit Union movement and avoid and resist influences and practices that are detrimental to it.
- To associate and cooperate with other credit union organizations in building a strong democratic movement for more effective service to members.

To Society

- To participate in community affairs as a responsible member of the society in which the Credit Union is a part.
- To support and participate in programs that favorably affect the society, citizens, and communities served by the Credit Union and, to the fullest extent possible, seek solutions to its social problems and concerns.
- To make Credit Union membership available to as many people as possible.

Standards of Leadership for Officials and Staff

- To observe the highest standards of personal conduct at all times. Act with honesty and integrity, and consistently hold the interests of Black Hills Federal Credit Union and all of its members above personal interest.
- To strictly uphold and comply with all applicable laws, by-laws, rules, policies, and regulations relating to the operation of Black Hills Federal Credit Union.
- To refrain from using the Credit Union position for improper personal or financial advantage or special privilege, and avoid all conflicts of interest and situations which could result in, or give the appearance of, a conflict of interest concerning Black Hills Federal Credit Union. Personal interests that could affect the proper exercise of professional judgment must be avoided at all cost. In situations where personal interests do exist, or may appear to exist, the person should disqualify himself or herself from any involvement in the transaction or activity, including abstaining from all discussion and voting on the matter.

Code of Ethics and Conduct Statement Policy Continued

- To act in good faith, act responsibly with due care, competence, and diligence without misrepresenting material facts or allowing one's independent judgment to be undermined. No person may take unfair advantage of another through manipulation, collusion, concealment, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair business practice.
- To conduct Credit Union business and treat colleagues and employees with integrity, fairness, respect, and confidentiality. Behave in a manner that reflects positively upon the Credit Union and maintain trust and confidence in the integrity of the Credit Union's activities. Refrain from using profane, offensive, or disrespectful language during any function or activity when representing the Credit Union or conducting the Credit Union's business.
- To adhere to open, democratic procedures in the election of officials and in their formulation of credit union policies and practices.

I have received and read the Code of Ethics and Conduct Statement Policy.

Fraud Policy

Any volunteer who becomes aware of any fraudulent or dishonest action on the part of any other employee or volunteer, or who has knowledge of the same, must report that fraud or dishonesty immediately to the President of the Credit Union, or to the Chair of the Board of Directors, or to the Chair of the Supervisory Committee. If the President is notified, he/she shall notify both Chairs and if one of the Chairs is notified, he/she shall immediately notify the President of the Credit Union and then the President shall immediately notify the other Chair. The failure to report knowledge of any fraudulent or dishonest act can result in the loss of insurance coverage for the volunteer and may result in personal liability. Any volunteer that fails to report knowledge of and/or has engaged in any fraudulent or dishonest conduct shall be subject to immediate suspension and such other further action, as the Board of Directors deems necessary and appropriate based on the nature of the offense, the dollar amount involved and the insurance coverage requirements, and state, federal law, and any other consideration the Board of Directors determines to be appropriate.

I have received and read the Fraud Policy.

Federal Bank Bribery Law

The following are the policies of the Black Hills Federal Credit Union pursuant to NCUA Interpretative Ruling and Policy Statement No. 87 1 concerning guidelines for compliance with the Federal Bank Bribery Law. Each person defined as a "credit union official" must acknowledge by his/her signature the receipt of this policy and any future amendments.

PERSONS SUBJECT TO THIS POLICY

The following persons are subject to and shall comply with this policy: any employee, officer, director, committee member, agent, or attorney (hereinafter referred to as "Credit Union Official") of the Black Hills Federal Credit Union.

CONDUCT PROHIBITED BY ANY CREDIT UNION OFFICIAL

No Credit Union official of the Black Hills Federal Credit Union shall either:

- Solicit for themselves or for a third party (other than the Credit Union itself) anything of value from anyone in return for any business, service or confidential information of the Credit Union, or
- Accept anything of value (other than bona fide salary and fees referred to in 18 U.S.C. Section 215 (c)) from anyone in connection with the business of the Credit Union either before or after a transaction is discussed or consummated.

EXCEPTIONS: CONDUCT THAT IS DEEMED APPROPRIATE

The following is a listing of appropriate exceptions to the general prohibition regarding the acceptance of things of value in connection with Credit Union business. These exceptions are as follows:

- A Credit Union Official may accept gifts, gratuities, amenities, or favors based on obvious family or personal relationships (such as those between parents, children or spouse of a Credit Union Official) where the circumstances make it clear that it is those relationships rather than the business of the Credit Union concerned which are the motivating factor.

- A Credit Union Official may accept meals, refreshments or entertainment, all of reasonable value and in the course of a meeting or other occasion the purpose of which is to hold bona fide business discussions, provided these expenses would be paid for by the Credit Union if not paid for by the other party as a reasonable business expense. The dollar limit for such an occasion is $100.
- A Credit Union Official may accept a loan from banks or a financial institution on customary terms to finance property and usual activities of Credit Union Officials, such as home mortgage loans, except where prohibited by law.
- A Credit Union Official may accept advertising or promotional material of reasonable value, such as pens, pencils, note pads, key chains, calendars, and similar items;
- A Credit Union Official may accept discounts or rebates on merchandise or services that do not exceed those available to other members; and
- A Credit Union Official may accept gifts of reasonable value that are related to commonly recognized events or occasions, such as a promotion, new job, wedding, retirement, Christmas, or bar or bat mitzvah. The dollar limit for such an occasion is $100.
- A Credit Union Official may accept civic, charitable, educational, or religious organizational awards for recognition of services and accomplishment. The dollar limit for such an occasion is $100.

The Credit Union may also approve of other circumstances, not identified above, on a case by case basis, in which a Credit Union Official accepts something of value in connection with Credit Union business provided that such approval is made in writing on the basis of a full written disclosure of all relevant facts and is consistent with the bank bribery statute.

DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY ALL CREDIT UNION OFFICIALS

If any Credit Union Official is offered or receives something of value beyond what is authorized, that Credit Union Official must disclose that fact as follows:

- All Credit Union employees to the President,
- the President to the Board of Directors,
- and all other officials shall report to the Board of Directors of the Black Hills Federal Credit Union.

Each report must be reduced to writing and shall be reviewed by the President or Board of Directors, respectively, of the Credit Union to determine in each instance whether that which was accepted is reasonable and does not pose a threat to the integrity of the Credit Union.

All Credit Union Officials shall disclose all potential conflicts of interest, including those in which they have been inadvertently placed due to either business or personal relationships with members, suppliers, business associates or competitors of the Credit Union.

Should there be any conflict between this policy and any other policy of the Black Hills Federal Credit Union, these policies control to the exclusion of any other policy.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY CREDIT UNION OFFICIAL

By signing below the undersigned credit union official does hereby acknowledge that he/she has read and understands the contents of this policy.

Conflict of Interest

1. No Credit Union official, which term includes any employee, officer, director, committee member, or agent, shall engage in self-dealing or otherwise trade upon their position with the Credit Union or accept from one doing or seeking to do business with the Credit Union a business opportunity not available to other persons or made available because of such Credit Union official's position with the Credit Union.

A volunteer shall not accept any form of compensation, except reimbursement of authorized expenses, for providing a service or otherwise doing work for the Credit Union unless approved in advance by all members of the Board of Directors.

Anytime any Credit Union official has an actual or potential conflict of interest or is involved in any Credit Union matter and has a personal or business interest in such matter, such actual or potential conflict must be immediately disclosed as follows:

- All Credit Union employees to the President,
- the President to the Board of Directors,
- and all other officials shall report to the Board of Directors of the Black Hills Federal Credit Union.

Any Credit Union official who has an actual or potential conflict of interest shall abstain from any action in their official capacity regarding the area of conflict until approval is given by the President or Board of Directors, respectively.

2. When matters pertaining to the specific personal or business interest of a board member are discussed, the affected board member or members shall not engage in the discussion, shall not be present during the discussion, nor shall he/she participate in the vote, and the minutes shall so state. If more than one board member is involved in matters involving a conflict of interest and a vote is called, the number voting must exceed the quorum requirements for the meeting or unanimous action is required of the voting board members.

3. Examples of conflict of interest include but are not limited to any matter in which an official has a personal or business interest in any item of Credit Union business, or any conduct of self-dealing or otherwise trading on one's position with the Credit Union or accepting from one doing or seeking to do business with the Credit Union a business opportunity not available to other persons or made available because of such official's position with the Credit Union, such actions would further include and are not limited to:

- The reduction of interest on an obligation of a relative.
- Purchasing land by the Credit Union where the land is owned by a director, a Vice President, Senior Vice President, or the President.
- Purchasing a repossessed vehicle or foreclosed property from the Credit Union.
- Selling casualty insurance through the Credit Union and through an agency where a director, a Vice President, Senior Vice President, or the President is an agent.
- Any Credit Union employee, director, officer, or spouse who is associated as a director, officer or employee with, or holds a material ownership interest in another financial institution, trade association or related business shall file an annual disclosure statement with the President or Board Chair as outlined in section 1035-1 within 30 days of January 1, the start of employment, or taking office. Any apparent conflict of interest disclosed by the statement will be resolved by the President or Board Personnel Committee and the individual.

Document Retention Policy

All materials submitted to individual members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee, including electronic and paper documents and correspondence, shall be retained by each member until the matters contained therein are reviewed and the utilization of those materials has been completed. The Credit Union shall retain ownership of all rights to all materials submitted, delivered, or communicated to the members, except materials which are readily available to the general public. The members of the Board and Supervisory Committee agree to return or destroy any and all materials submitted to or among them, including all originals, copies, translations, notes, or any other form of said materials, without retaining any copy or duplicate thereof, after review and utilization of the materials is complete, upon removal from or leaving the Board or Supervisory Committee, or at the request of the Credit Union. This policy does not apply to documents contained on a BHFCU-owned iPad.

A master file of all materials submitted to the Board of Directors shall be maintained at the Credit Union, which file is open to inspection at any time by any member of the Board of Directors. Likewise, a master file of all materials submitted to the Supervisory Committee shall be maintained at the Credit Union, which file is open to inspection at any time by any member of the Supervisory Committee.

Terms of Agreement for Board of Directors

I, the undersigned, fully understand and do hereby agree that to serve on the Board of Directors of the Black Hills Federal Credit Union, I will conform to and abide by the following:

1. Attend all regular and special meetings of the Board when notified, unless prevented by circumstances beyond my control.
2. Prepare thoroughly for all Board meetings by reading and studying materials sent to me.
3. Attend the Credit Union planning sessions (normally held at least once every eighteen months), which may require my participation Friday afternoon, Friday evening, and all day Saturday.
4. Continually seek to learn more about the Credit Union organization and its services and about my individual responsibilities as a board member by fulfilling the educational requirements established by the Board.
5. Complete the six Board of Directors modules of the "Volunteer Achievement Program" within the first 12 months after elected.
6. Consider the business of the Credit Union and its members to be confidential in nature.
7. Should I ever receive or be offered something of value beyond what is authorized by the Credit Union's Federal Bank Bribery Policy, I shall disclose this fact in writing to the Board of Directors.
8. Anytime I have an actual or potential conflict of interest or I am involved in any Credit Union matter and have a personal or business interest in such matter or should I ever find myself under obligation to any other person, group, or organization that is in conflict with the Credit Union or if I am involved in any other matter which is in conflict with the Credit Union's Conflict of Interest Policy, I shall disclose such actual or potential conflict immediately to the Board of Directors. I will refrain from participating or voting on issues related to the actual or potential conflict.
9. Comply with all provisions of the Credit Union's Fraud Policy in that if I become aware of any fraudulent or dishonest action on the part of any other employee, director, or volunteer, I must report that fraud or dishonesty immediately to the President of the Credit Union and to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
10. To the best of my ability, fulfill the duties and responsibilities of a director and participate in determination of policy and other matters coming before the Board, give full attention to problems of the Credit Union, and vote on all issues submitted or proposed for Board action.
11. Give all assistance possible to my fellow Board members, appointed officers, and employees of the Credit Union in the discharge of the duties of their offices.
